

MID-YEAR CRIME BRIEF 2025 (JANUARY – JUNE)

IN THE FIRST HALF OF 2025,
PHYSICAL CRIME CASES
INCREASED BY 5.4%

Total number of physical crime cases

CRIMES OF CONCERN

SHOP THEFT

TOTAL NUMBER OF CASES REPORTED

▲ 4.2%

1H 2024 2,013

1H 2025 2,097

- More than half of the cases involved amount loss of below $50
- Retailers have increased vigilance and adopted technology, such as CCTVs
- One of the top offences committed by youths

OUTRAGE
OF MODESTY

TOTAL NUMBER OF
CASES REPORTED

▲ 21.2%

1H 2024 666

1H 2025 807

- More than half of the cases involved offenders known to victims
- Cases on public transport network and along pavements/footpaths have increased
- Most cases occurred at residential premises, public transport network and shopping complexes

VOYEURISM

TOTAL NUMBER OF
CASES REPORTED

▼ 2.3%

1H 2024 258

1H 2025 252

- Most cases occurred at residential premises, shopping complexes and public transport network.
- Majority of cases at residential premises were committed by offenders known to victims
- Majority of cases at shopping complexes and public transport network typically involved offenders not known to victims

THEFT IN DWELLING

TOTAL NUMBER OF
CASES REPORTED

▲ 5.9%

1H 2024 744

1H 2025 788

- Increase across most premise types, more noticeably at commercial premises (e.g. shophouses, offices) and dormitories
- Majority of cases at commercial premises were committed by offenders not known to victims
- Most cases at dormitories were committed by fellow dormitory residents who shared rooms with the victim

CRIME WITH SIGNIFICANT DECREASE

HOUSEBREAKING

TOTAL NUMBER OF
CASES REPORTED

▼ 20%

1H 2024 65

1H 2025 52

- Significant drop in cases was a result of various crime prevention efforts by the SPF and community vigilance
- Nearly half of the cases took place in residential premises, with majority taking place in HDB flats
- The Police have stepped up patrols at affected areas, engaged residents and deployed mobile cameras and unmanned aerial vehicles

SINGAPORE
POLICE FORCE
SAFEGUARDING EVERY DAY

