

General Information

- If you are a recipient of physical currency* and bearer negotiable instruments* (CBNI) from outside Singapore, the total value of which exceeds SGD 20,000 (or its equivalent in a foreign currency), you are required by law to give a full and accurate report and submit it to the Suspicious Transaction Reporting Office within 5 business days upon receipt.
- If you are sending CBNI out of Singapore, the total value of which exceeds SGD 20,000 (or its equivalent in a foreign currency), you are required by law to give a full and accurate report and the report must reach the Suspicious Transaction Reporting Office at least 1 business day prior to sending CBNI out of Singapore.
- If you are bringing CBNI into Singapore, the total value of which exceeds SGD 20,000 (or its equivalent in a foreign currency), you are required by law to give a full and accurate report and the report must reach the Suspicious Transaction Reporting Office at least 1 business day prior to bringing CBNI into Singapore.
- The punishment under the law for failing to give a full and accurate report is a fine not exceeding SGD 50,000 or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 years, or to both. The CBNI may also be seized.

* Physical Currency refers to the coin and printed money (whether of Singapore or of a foreign country/region) that is designated as legal tender and circulates as, and is customarily used and accepted as, a medium of exchange in the country/region of issue.

♦ A Bearer Negotiable Instruments (BNI) means:
 (a) a traveller's cheque; or
 (b) any negotiable instrument that is in bearer form, indorsed without any restriction, made out to a fictitious payee or otherwise in such form that title thereto passes upon delivery, and includes a negotiable instrument that has been signed but with the payee's name omitted.

Examples of negotiable instruments are a bill of exchange, cheque or promissory note.

There is no restriction to receiving and moving any type or amount of physical currency* and bearer negotiable instruments*. This reporting requirement is part of the effort to combat international money laundering and terrorism financing.
