

FAQ

1. What is covered in “Recognise Terrorist Threats” (RTT)?

RTT covers:

- (a) the current trends of terrorism both internationally and locally;
- (b) identification of person-borne threats;
- (c) identification of vehicle-borne threats;
- (d) identification of object-based threats;

2. Is the RTT requirement mandatory for Security Officers trained in the earlier WSQ “Handle Counter Terrorism Activities” (HCTA)?

No. Security Officers who have completed HCTA will be deemed to have met the new RTT licensing requirement. However, HCTA-trained Security Officers are strongly encouraged to view the SGSecure videos on Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation, Automated External Defibrillators and Improvised First Aid Skills. These videos are available on the PLRD website (www.police.gov.sg/e-services/apply/licenses-and-permits/private-security-industry).

3. Where can Security Officers enrol for RTT?

RTT is currently offered by ten Approved Training Organisations:

- (a) Security Industry Institute
- (b) Absolute Kinetics Consultancy Pte Ltd
- (c) Aetos Training Academy Pte Ltd
- (d) Apro Training Centre Pte Ltd
- (e) Ascendo Consulting Pte Ltd
- (f) CBM Pte Ltd
- (g) Certis Cisco Security Pte Ltd
- (h) Leacov Singapore Pte Ltd
- (i) NTUC Learning Hub Pte Ltd
- (j) Secura Training Academy

4. Why are security officers deployed at warehouses and condominiums exempted? How are warehouses and condominiums defined?

Security officers deployed at warehouses and condominiums are exempted from the RTT licensing requirement, so as to address industry’s concerns on the tight manpower situation and diverse profile of security officers. This exemption may be reviewed at a later date, when the RTT training of the non-exempted officers has stabilised.

Definitions:

- A warehouse is a building where storage is the principal use and where no business is transacted other than incidentally to such storage. This definition is taken from Urban Redevelopment Authority's use classes for buildings; warehouses are under Class 10.

- A condominium refers to strata-titled properties (non-landed) that are solely for residential use. This includes condominiums, executive condominiums, privatised HUDCs, as well as residential cluster housing regulated under the Land Titles (Strata) Act (Cap. 158).

5. Is funding available for this course?

Yes. Similar to other WSQ basic licensing units, up to 95% course funding is available for Singaporeans and permanent residents who achieved a minimum of 75% attendance during training and passed the subsequent assessment. Please visit www.ssg.gov.sg for further details.
