

Jailed 8 months for role in money scam

Lawyer says woman was duped by a man she met on a dating site

By KHUSHWANT SINGH

SHE went looking for love online. Instead of finding it, 51-year-old Khanim Omar was sentenced yesterday to eight months in jail, after having been duped by a man she met through a dating website.

The MediaCorp technical producer allowed her POSB account to be used to launder about $388,000, which had been stolen from the Spanish bank account of a Russian businesswoman.

Once the money was in, she withdrew it on the same day and handed it to Norlita Buang, 31, at a fast-food outlet in King Albert Park.

Khanim's defence counsel Mathew Kurian said she was "not street-smart and gullible" and had been made use of. She worked at MediaCorp for more than 30 years, and knew about technical matters only, he said.

She got to know a Wayne Derache, who remains at large, through the badoo.com dating website in January last year.

Five months later, she agreed to let her bank account be used to receive payments from overseas. In return, Derache paid her $15,000.

Between July 26 and Aug 1 last year, she received three overseas remittances totalling $387,768 from the Sabadell Atlantico bank in Barcelona.

The bank had received e-mails purportedly from Ms Ksenia Korsun instructing it to transfer the money to Khanim's bank account for a property investment.

Ms Korsun, 40, lodged a police report on Aug 8.

Khanim, who was arrested, pleaded guilty to receiving stolen property and passing it to another person.

She has surrendered $4,000 of the $15,386 she received.

Norlita, a logistics officer, was also arrested and charged.

For receiving stolen property,

Khanim Omar's bank account was used to launder about $388,000.

Khanim could have been jailed for up to five years, fined up to $10,000, or both.

For handing the money to Norlita, she could have received a jail term of up to seven years, a fine of up to $500,000, or both.

4 held over $373,000 worth of heroin, Ice

By BRYNA SINGH

FOUR Malaysians have been arrested for allegedly trafficking about $373,000 worth of drugs.

They were caught at the Woodlands Checkpoint trying to bring in 250g of Ice, worth about $37,000, and about 3.2kg of heroin, worth about $336,000.

The heroin seizure is one of the largest this year.

Two male suspects, aged 20 and 29, were trying to clear immigration in a Malaysia-registered car on Wednesday evening when their vehicle was stopped by Immigration & Checkpoints Authority officers.

A search of the car revealed 14 bundles of heroin and two bundles of Ice hidden in one of the door panels. A small amount of Ice was also found in a compartment behind the car radio.

Central Narcotics Bureau officers subsequently placed both men under arrest at the scene.

About an hour after the pair had tried to gain entry, the other two suspects, a 31-year-old man and a 23-year-old woman, arrived at the checkpoint in a Malaysia-registered car. Both were immediately arrested.

The first pair are being investigated for drug trafficking. If convicted, they may face the death penalty. Investigations are ongoing with regard to the second pair of suspects.
